CQG and Strategy Runner Announce API Integration

Denver, CO, October 1, 2007 – CQG, Inc., the industry’s leading provider of exchange data, analytics, and order routing, and Strategy Runner, a world leader in automated trading solutions, announce the integration of their trading platforms.

Strategy Runner’s connection with the CQG API will allow their FCM partners to utilize CQG’s reliable data and high performance order routing services. In turn, CQG customers will have access to Strategy Runner services and algorithmic trading solutions using Strategy Runner’s robust server-based technology.

“We are excited about the opportunity to partner up with CQG,” said Yakov Becker, Strategy Runner CEO. “As a company, our goal is to establish strategic industry partnerships in our ongoing efforts to expand the variety of services offered to our clients. Our partnership with CQG will undoubtedly be mutually beneficial to clients of both companies.”

“The collaboration between CQG and Strategy Runner shows our initiative to be a solution provider within the futures industry,” said Josef Schroeter, CQG’s president. “This partnership enables both Strategy Runner and CQG customers to take advantage of our hosting services and high performance order routing capabilities.”
